 - b. Why doesn't Five Hills advertise for a permanent full time nurse? The office secretaries at the hospital find it very difficult to fill schedules when a replacement is needed.
 - c. Could the receptionists at the clinic have an answering machine and return calls to people who are trying to phone for appointments?

- d. Is the provincial government paying Five Hills for the seven beds that were initially designated as hospital beds in Central Butte Regency Hospital?
- e. When the Central Butte ambulance is transporting a patient to a distant city is there a replacement ambulance sent to Central Butte from Moose Jaw to cover emergencies?
- f. Would it make more sense for advance care paramedics to be permanently placed in small towns where the need is greater for emergency care than in larger centres? Exchanging patients to different ambulances during their transportation to regional hospitals is a waste of critical time.
